

EXPERIENCE THE FASTEST PATH TO PERFORMANCE WHEN YOU PLAY TO YOUR STRENGTHS

We know that the most successful and high-performing organizations and individuals are the ones who are engaged and inspired to do their work. Our research and data-driven strengths-based approach will help you:

- Create a healthy, engaged organization by developing strengths-based leadership skills that inspire a lasting culture shift.
- Change team relationships with increased, improved, and enhanced communication through understanding strengths—your own and others.
- Experience a sense of purpose when you and your teams see how your strengths create a meaningful difference.
- Create innovation by leveraging strengths to collaborate effectively and gain the vision, courage, commitment, and close relationships with customers that innovation requires.
- Increase customer loyalty when team members are more genuinely customer-centric and build more effective relationships with customers.

UNLOCKIT : THE POWER OF STRENGTHS USE

Is a program designed to provide an experiential introduction to the power of strengths application. By creating awareness of and excitement for strengths, it prepares participants to dramatically accelerate strengths use in their lives.

Participants in the 90 minute UnlockIt program will:

- Recognize how great results come from focusing on strengths (not weaknesses)
- Understand how strengths applied can turn a negative experience into a positive catalyst for change
- See how leveraging strengths can create greater understanding of self and others
- Learn how to go from knowing what their strengths are, to knowing what to do with them
- Empower themselves to increase engagement, productivity, performance, teamwork, and trust through strengths

This program is perfect for:

- Teams or leaders looking to improve communication, performance, and engagement
- Individuals seeking to change their relationships, improve performance, and feel more fulfillment
- Anyone interested in experiencing the power of strengths
